FIRE AND ADVERTISING

How often you've heard someone say: "It couldn't have been much of a fire for I didn't see a line about it in the Star-Bulletin."

Have you ever thought then of how seriously this same line of reasoning might be applied to a piece of property which you may have for sale or rent?

Honolulu people look to the REAL ESTATE and RENTAL columns of the Star-Bulletin for reliable information on important properties just as they watch the Star-Bulletin news columns for reliable reports of important news events.

Is your selling or renting property of sufficient importance to interest some Star-Bulletin reader?

This is equivalent to asking if it would be of interest to any English reading family in Honolulu, as practically every one in or near Honolulu reads the Star-Bulletin, its advertising as well as its news.

Don't depend upon a newspaper of smaller circulation if you want quick results.

Use the Star-Bulletin and reach more homes than is possible through any other daily newspaper.
